

Friction

Woven and molded heavy-duty brake linings.

Serck supply and refurbish heavy duty non-asbestos marine grade brake liners and carry Stocks of a large variety of sizes and applications. The high quality brass woven material is 100% asbestos free available in wide range of widths and thickness, the material can be supplied And be relined for fixing by bolts, screws, reverts and by bonding.

Applications:

General machinery, lift and elevator brakes, excavators, winches, concrete mixers, cranes, drop hammers, mining and quarry equipment, oil well draw works, drilling units, sugar mill centrifuges etc. Contact us for special applications.

Heavy Duty truck and bus brake linings:

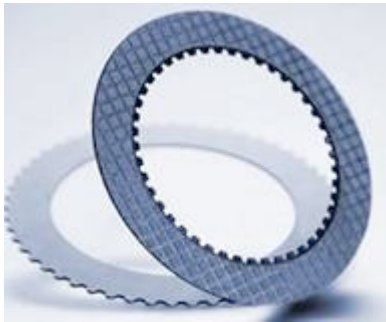

With the constant load on the braking system in heavy Traffic and coast trucking it is vital to have the correct brake Liners installed on trucks and busses to ensure safety. Serck Carry special heavy duty brake liners in stock for this purpose and ensure professional and fast refurbishment work.

Clutch Facings:

Serck carry a large of heavy duty clutch facings covering a wide range of applications ensuring quick turn around times for refurbishment. We supply as original equipment and replacement spares brake linings which have an excellent reputation for quality and performance.

Main Features

- Consistent friction coefficient
- Good wear resistance
- Good heat resistance
- High tensile strength
- Good versatile resistance